FULTON MUST FIGHT WAY THROUGH SERIES OF BOUTS

Fred Fulton will have to prove himself Fred Fulton will have to prove himself before he can get a crack at Frank Moran or Jack Dillon in this man's town. Billy Gibson has arranged what he 'E's a heavyweight elimination series for his Stadium A. C. and he is there that Fulton will go under the test. The tail Westerner, who flatters himself on resembling Jess Willard, has two weeks in which to train for his first Eastern bout with Al Reich on Thursday, April 27. If Reich beats him Fulton might just as well forget his champion-ship aspirations and go home.

Jim Coffey gets in the ring to-morrow night for the first time since his second defeat by Frank Moran. Jack Geyer of Denver, a big fellow who has lost more bouts than he has won, will be his opponent. The next step in the Stadium club's elimination series will be the Charlie Weinert-Andre Anderson affair Saturday night. It is a coincidence that
